

OPLA Advocacy in Action:
Excellence in Children's or Teen Services Award

This award is to honour excellent library staff working with children or youth. The award can be given to an individual or group. It can be a service-based project, a unique program, a community partnership, an outreach endeavour, or an advocacy effort that you feel should be recognized and celebrated.

Award Presentation:

This award will be presented at the fall Child and Youth Blow Out event.
